

KCS Girls On Top in Cage Action

Keshequa Central won its own girls' basketball tournament last weekend with a victory over Greenwood.

The Nunda school advanced to the championship game with a 46-30 win over Dansville. In the consolation game Saturday, Dansville dropped a 34-30 decision to Canisteo which lost to Greenwood in the first round.

The Mustangs led by four with two minutes remaining against Canisteo but lost Tricia Hurlburt and Kathy Webster on fouls and was unable to hold the advantage.

Against Keshequa, Hurlburt scored 10 points and had eight against Canisteo. Krista Yaeger had seven against KCS and six in the consolation. Chris Dixon hit for six in each game and Kathy Wester scored six against Canisteo.

Dansville Coach Pat Shafer announced that Kelly Wester and Lori Hartman will rejoin the team this week after being sidelined with injuries. In addition, Tammy Brewster has been moved up from the junior varsity squad.

Matman Wins Title

Dansville's Mike Green came away from last weekend's Genesee Valley Tournament at Genesee with the championship in the 177-pound class. The annual event attracted matmen from 32 area schools.

Green had to win seven matches enroute to the title and gained the crown in the finals with a victory over Don Spice from Dundee. Enroute, he also turned back the Palmyra-Macedon entry who had been undefeated. Green in now 10-1 for the season.

Coach Dan Carmen's squad placed 14th in the competition won by North Rose-Wolcott. It was the second straight year that DOHS came away with an individual champion. Aaron Farrell turned the trick last January.

The Mustangs also recently competed in the Avon Tournament in which they placed fifth in the 12-team field. Green gained a third in this action while Mark Hussey placed third at 145 pounds.

Dansville was scheduled at Livonia last night and on Jan. 23 will participate in the Newark Tournament.
